¹ Politically exposed person (PEP) – a person who in the Republic of Latvia, other Member State or third country holds or has held a prominent public office, including a higher official of the public authority, a head of the state administrative unit (local government), the head of the government, the minister (the deputy minister or assistant deputy minister if there is such an office in the relevant country), the state secretary or other official of high level in the government or state administrative unit (local government), a member of parliament or a member of similar legislation entity, a member of the management entity (board) of a political party, a judge of the constitutional court, a judge of the supreme court or of the court of other level (a member of the court authority), a council or board member of the supreme audit institution, a council or board member of the central bank, an ambassador, a chargé d'affaires, a high-ranking officer of the armed forces, a council or board member of a state capital company, a head (a director, a deputy director) and a board member of an international organization, or a person who holds equal position in such organization.

² Family member of PEP – a person who is the following for PEP: 1) a spouse or a person equivalent to a spouse. A person shall be considered a person equivalent to a spouse only if he or she is given such a status pursuant to the legislation of the relevant state; 2) a child or a child of a spouse or a person equivalent to a spouse of a PEP, his or her spouse or a person equivalent to a spouse; 3) a parent, grandparent or grandchildren; 4) a brother or a sister.

³ Person closely associated to PEP – an individual regarding whom it is known that he or she has business or other close relations with a PEP or he or she is a stockholder or shareholder in the same commercial company with a PEP, and also an individual who is the only owner of a legal entity which is known to have been actually established in the favor of PEP.

⁴ Person who holds another prominent office / public position – a person who isn't PEP, but holds another prominent office / public position, for example, which enables a person to influence the decisions of the state, local governments (or state / local government corporations), to conclude agreements, to make decisions in high-profile sports organizations, to implement lobbying activities, etc.
